

Open Training Session #1

Agriculture in focus: connecting water, risks, and financing for resilience

Draft Agenda

Explore how sustainable agriculture depends on the consideration of interconnected challenges such as water management, climate risks, and financing. Discover tools, solutions, and transferable experiences that can support more resilient agricultural systems across Europe.

Date: 25.06.2026 11:00 – 13:00 CEST

Moderators: Élodie Bossio (FEDARENE) & Guido Schmidt (Fresh Thoughts)

Welcome Élodie Bossio (FEDARENE)
Canari Europe: agroclimatic indicators supporting adaptation efforts in Europe Johanna Manteau, SOLAGRO
Promoting climate resilience in the agricultural sector with native seeds and better-adapted crops in Navarre, Spain Asier Gutiérrez García, INTIA
Remeandering and restoring a natural water course for climate adaptation in France Yohanna Cabaret, Nouvelle Aquitaine Region
Building Climate Resilience through Agricultural Mutual Funds: An operational experience from North-East Italy Giuseppe Boatto, Agrifondo Mutualistico Veneto e FVG
Panel discussion Moderator: Guido Schmidt (Fresh Thoughts)
Wrap up and closing Élodie Bossio (FEDARENE)

Registration link: EU survey